AUGUST-SEPTEMBER 2021

“Oscar Bluemner, Stendal, 1892”

“Oscar Bluemner: My Finest Design” Exhibit

Dates: Aug. 19-Dec. 3, 2021

The exhibit will explore Oscar Bluemner’s influence, study and lasting effect of architecture as an artist.

The display will include early influences and training in architecture, and seeks to illustrate those aspects of architecture that were either embraced or abandoned as Bluemner sought to distance himself from architecture and pursue painting as a vocation.

“Deadland 803, 2018” by photographer Matt Robert

“(un)Peopled: A Sense of Place” Exhibit

Dates: Aug. 19-Oct. 16, 2021

The photography exhibit will investigate how a global pandemic has altered the way people relate to places. Photographers will include Matt Roberts, MFA, associate professor of digital arts at Stetson University, Cristina Brandi, Brandon Narsing, Justin Nolan and Melodi Roberts.

Smithsonian Magazine Museum Day

Date: Saturday, Sept. 18, 2021 from noon-4 p.m.

The event will include curator’s tours of the “Oscar Bluemner: My Finest Design” and “(un)Peopled: A Sense of Place” exhibits.
